	Roundtable: Best Practices for Teaching and Learning Caroline Carney SS 205 Join colleagues to share your successful student-centered, cooperative learning and critical thinking-based teaching strategies. Hold students accountable while increasing interest and engagement with content learning. Instructor Reflections – Get It Done in an Hour Facilitated by Alfred Hochstaedter & the SLO/Accreditation Group BMC 201 Join us to complete Instructor Reflections for your courses. We'll provide any assistance you need to complete your reflections during this session. Please have access to your last semester's syllabus and grade book to choose which assessments to address.	More Tips and Tricks on Using Your Computer Kim Panis & Linda Sasaki BMC 206 Have you ever had days that fly by and it feels like you spent all of your time and frustrations in front of the computer? Come to this workshop to learn "tips and tricks" to be less annoyed and more efficient when using the computer.	Seek the Funding to Expand Your Horizons Part 2 Beccie Michael & Deirdre Sullivan LF 101 A number of grant opportunities open annually, but they require significant planning. We will review some examples of opportunities that MPC is eligible to apply for and how we need to position ourselves for success.	Marina Ed Center Orientation Anthony Villarreal & Susanne Muszala SS 102 Meet with other Marina faculty and staff while munching on healthy snacks. We'll continue the discussion of how to foster community building for our Marina students and for ourselves! Marina staff will be available to give information about resources, procedures and tools available at the Marina Education Center. Everyone is welcome!
12:00 PM-1:20 PM	Join us in the newly remodeled Student Center for a special lunch prepared by Peninsula Café. Brown Baggers also welcomed! LUNCH OPTIONS $7.50 prepaid lunch includes a delicious Enchilada (either Chicken or Vegetable and Cheese) with rice & beans and a drink. Make check payable to Peninsula Café.
